

Year 1 English SMSC and BV Links

A	B	C	D	E	F
Old Bear	Rapunzel	Hermelin	Where the Wild Things Are	The Secret of Black Rock	The Last Wolf
British Values and SMSC Links
Social: Emphasize teamwork, friendship, and cooperation through discussions and group activities. Encourage students to work together to solve problems and support each other in their learning. Moral: Highlight moral themes such as perseverance, kindness, and empathy, providing opportunities for reflection. Discuss the importance of making good choices and how these impact others. Cultural: Introduce cultural understanding by exploring the setting of the story (the nursery) and the significance of toys. Foster recognition and respect for diversity among students, promoting a sense of belonging and identity. Mutual Respect and Tolerance: Explore how characters in the story respect each other's ideas and backgrounds, emphasizing mutual respect. Encourage discussions about tolerance and acceptance, linking back to the story's themes of cooperation and friendship.	Social: Highlight the importance of being good friends and working together. Talk about how Rapunzel and her friend helped each other, and encourage students to do the same. Moral: Discuss being brave, kind, and helping others. Ask students about times they've been brave or kind like Rapunzel. Cultural: Explore where the story happens and why it's important. Help students understand different places and things, and why they're special. Mutual Respect and Tolerance: Talk about how Rapunzel and her friend respected each other. Encourage students to be kind to everyone and understand that we're all different.	Social: Talk about working together and helping friends. Show how the writer helps the person who lost their handbag and why it's important to be kind to each other. Moral: Teach about being honest and fair, and helping people when they need it. Discuss how the writer's actions show kindness and being responsible. Cultural: Explore the place where the story happens and why it's special. Help students understand different places and why it's good to help each other, making everyone feel like they belong. Mutual Respect and Tolerance: Talk about why it's important to be careful with other people's things. Encourage students to be kind and understand how stealing can make others sad.	Social: Discuss Max's interactions with the Wild Things and how he becomes their leader. Encourage discussions about teamwork, leadership, and friendship, highlighting the importance of working together and showing kindness towards others. Mutual Respect and Tolerance: Explore Max's journey to the land of the Wild Things and his interactions with different creatures. Discuss the importance of respecting others' differences and treating everyone with kindness and understanding, promoting mutual respect and tolerance. Cultural: Explore the imaginative world created in the story, including the land of the Wild Things. Foster curiosity about different environments and creatures, promoting understanding and appreciation of diversity in nature and storytelling. Spiritual: Encourage discussions about the story's characters, events, and emotions, promoting empathy towards others' perspectives and fostering curiosity about the world around them.	Moral: Discuss Erin's decision to go sailing, even though she was told not to. Explore the importance of following rules and safety precautions. Cultural: Explore the significance of Black Rock in the story and its role as a mythical sea creature. Discuss different cultural beliefs and legends related to the sea and nature. Spiritual: Discuss Erin's bravery and trust in Black Rock to keep her safe. Explore themes of resilience and inner strength. Mutual Respect and Tolerance: Discuss Erin's lack of fear towards Black Rock and its appearance. Explore why it's important to be kind and understanding to everyone, even if they're different from us.	Social: Discuss Little Red's interactions with the wolf and how they become friends despite initial fears. Encourage discussions about friendship, kindness, and trust. Moral: Explore the moral lesson of not judging others based on appearances and the importance of kindness towards strangers. Discuss how Little Red's willingness to befriend the wolf demonstrates empathy and compassion. Cultural: Explore the setting of the eerie wood and the characters of Little Red and the wolf. Foster curiosity about different environments and creatures, promoting understanding and appreciation of diversity in nature and storytelling. Mutual Respect and Tolerance: Discuss the theme of acceptance and respect between Little Red and the wolf, despite their differences. Encourage empathy towards others and the importance of being open-minded and tolerant towards those who may seem different.